Examiner's Amendment/Reasons for Allowance

1.   An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

In the Claims

2.   Claims 1 and 14, delete "A method" and insert –A computer implemented method--.

       Claim 29, delete "A system" and insert –A computer implemented system--.

3.   Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with applicant's attorney, James F. Goedken, on December 14, 2004.

Reasons for Allowance

4.   Claims 1-30 are allowed.

5.   The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

       The cited prior art taken alone or in combination fails to teach the claims invention of creating a conversation in an educational simulation for a learner comprising the steps of providing simulation software code, providing a dynamic data model comprising tasks and statements, receiving a statement made by the learner and generating a list of possible statements for the learner to make from the statements within the dynamic data model.

The closest prior art (Lannert et al, U.S. Patent 6,029,156) teaches goal based tutoring systems with behavior to tailor to characteristics of a particular user wherein a simulation model generates feedback based on a set of rules. Notwithstanding the model feedback, Lannert does not use a discrete process to assemble a list of possible statements for the learner to execute using an adjusting data model. Applicant's simplicity in structuring the list of possible statements facilitates ease of operation.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
